WEATHER INDICATIONS.

Fair tonight; colder in extreme southern portion. Sunday, fair.

J. M. Wilkinson, of the wool scouring mill, left for California last evening.

Deputy United States Marshal G. A. Kusman is in Las Vegas, where he will attend United States court.

W. C. Butman, formerly a photographer here, arrived in Albuquerque yesterday from Long Beach, Cal.

William H. Otis, of Colorado Springs, arrived in Albuquerque last evening. Mr. Otis is a well known capitalist.

Miss Eva J. Addy, a former resident of Albuquerque, arrived in the city last evening to visit during the holidays.

Jake Levy is the recipient of a thoroughbred English bulldog, sent him as a Christmas gift from John Batterfield, of Brooklyn, Ind.

W. S. Fullerton, the Socorro county ranchman, arrived in the city this morning and expects to remain over Christmas visiting friends.

Harry R. Elliott, connected with the Farmington Enterprise, returned to San Juan county yesterday, after a delightful visit in this city.

Rollo Stevens arrived this morning from Eps, on the Santa Fe cut-off, to spend the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Stevens.

Mrs. F. B. Romero, wife of Dr. Romero, is at Estancia, to spend the holidays with her father, Hon. Trinidad Romero, and other relatives.

Miss Ida Hart and Miss Kate Cunningham, of the university, left for their homes in Gallup last evening, where they will spend the holidays.

Lewis M. Holden, who is studying law at the Missouri state university, is spending the holidays with his father, George C. Holden and family.

Virginia R. Brainard, of Denver, arrived in the city last evening to assume her duties as nurse at the Indian school, to which position she was recently appointed.

Col. Geo. K. Neher has returned to the city from a most successful wild boar hunt up the river. He killed several of the largest specimens, and will remember special friends with choice hams Christmas day.

Captain M. P. Taft, of Mount Pleasant, Iowa, left last evening for Bisbee, Ariz., to spend the winter. Captain Taft has been the guest of Emil Mann of this city, for the past several days.

Mrs. Charles H. Eddy, of Jamestown, N. Y., arrived in Albuquerque this morning on hotel train No. 7, where she joined her husband and will make her future home. Mr. Eddy is one of the Citizen's reportorial staff.

Mrs. Solomon Luna and Mrs. T. S. Hubbell arrived this morning from Los Lunas, where the latter has been the guest of Mrs. Luna the past few days. Mrs. Luna expects to remain in the city over Christmas.

Mr. Price, a prominent merchant and citizen of Cleveland, Ohio, is in the city to spend the holidays with Mrs. Price and son, who reside at the corner of Lead avenue and Fourth street.

The Optic says: N. S. Belden received a car load of cows from O. M. Ham of Nickel, Kan., and sold the entire load almost immediately on their arrival in this city to J. E. Mathews, the dairyman of Albuquerque, who was in Las Vegas yesterday.

Master Paul Hopping, the 8-year-old son of George L. Hopping, for a number of years foreman of the job department of the morning paper, left last evening, unaccompanied, for his home in Los Angeles, after visiting at the home of C. E. Hopping and other relatives in Albuquerque.

Assistant United States Attorney E. L. Medler and Deputy United States Marshal Fred Fornoff, returned to the city this morning. Mr. Medler had been to Alamogordo on private business, while Mr. Fornoff appeared as a witness in a United States case at Tombstone, Ariz.

The second section of train No. 7 of last night, which arrived here at 11:20 o'clock this morning, was composed of six express cars and two mail cars. The delay was caused by heavy snow on the Raton mountains. Owing to the heavy snow west the train was annulled at the local station and will be sent west tonight.

F. J. McGinn and wife, formerly of this city, but now of Cooney, Socorro county, are in the city to spend the holidays. Mr. McGinn was formerly bookkeeper at the big hardware store of E. J. Post & Co., but is now connected with the McMillon Gold and Copper Mining company. Mr. and Mrs. McGinn staged it for ninety miles before reaching a train at Silver City, and in consequence both show the effects of the cold drive.

At the conclusion of the lecture in the opera house last evening given by Frederick Ward, the celebrated actor and lecturer, the local lodge of Elks and their ladies, welcomed Mr. Ward in the lodge rooms, where they entertained the distinguished visitor and were in turn royally entertained, for Mr. Ward has few peers in the entertainment line. It was a social period greatly enjoyed by all who participated and one not likely to be obliterated from memory.

Judge Selerino Crollott returned this morning from Raton, where he went a few days ago to investigate the advisability of moving there. Mr. Crollott holds a position with the secret service department of the Santa Fe, and the company has proposed to transfer him to Raton. Mr. Crollott says that snow covers the mountains from Glorieta to Raton, and he doesn't know how much farther north, and it is very cold at Raton and Las Vegas.

A SHOE STORE In The Making

The shoe business of this clothing store has been built. It is yet possible of a healthy, material growth. It began small; it expanded—it is still building. Today we sell three times the number of shoes we sold five years ago.

Why? It grew for three main reasons, viz., Hanan shoes, Douglas shoes, guaranteed quality. Years ago we sold any make of shoes. Now we concentrate our efforts in selling the two best lines in their respective classes, and guarantee every pair to give entire satisfaction. Hanan shoes sell at $5.50 to $6.50. Douglas shoes sell at $2.50 to $5.00.
